

IN THE RAPIDS.

Terrible Accident at the Niagara Falls.

CHIPPewa, Ont., November 8.—About half-past two o'clock this afternoon two men in a small row boat were observed by some boys on the shore, crossing the Niagara River, near the rapids just above the falls. Apparently they were unconscious of their danger at the time. They were close to the shore, and the boat was being carried down by the current. When the rapids they were seen to be in a perilous position. They were seen to be in a perilous position. They were seen to be in a perilous position.

Five at a Birth—All Boys.

TOLEDO, O., November 8.—A remarkable story comes from Henry County, just west of this city, which is so extraordinary and so extraordinary, it would be almost incredible. It is the fact that several days ago the wife of Wilhelm Frenzel, a German farmer living about half a mile from Holgate, gave birth to five children, all boys, and that all the infants are well formed and alive. Mrs. Frenzel is thirty-six years of age, and her husband is a German of the same age. They have been married for twenty years, and have had five children, all boys, and that all the infants are well formed and alive.

Fictitious Pseudonyms.

ST. LOUIS, November 8.—Late yesterday afternoon an indictment was found by the United States Grand Jury against John S. Overton, proprietor of the Southern Hotel, new stand, charging him with conspiring to defraud the Government by complicity in the fraudulent discharge of soldiers from the army. The indictment is returned by the grand jury, and the case is set for trial.

Starved to Death.

LOWELL, Mass., November 8.—A policeman today found a family of children starving to death in a tenement house on Charles street. There was a boy of seven, a girl of twelve and two other children, all of whom were found dead. The children were found in a state of extreme starvation, and the mother was found in a state of collapse.

An Heir to a Tramp.

LOUISVILLE, November 8.—A homeless man is making a stir in this city, and a young and beautiful girl recently arrived there, half starved and without a penny. As there was some irregularity in her passport, inquiries were made, and it was found that she was a girl of noble birth, and that she was the daughter of a nobleman.
